Dear Parent/Carer,

Further to the letter attached from Vivienne Cross, Head of Education, I want to clarify our school's position for Thursday 8 December.

We will be unable to have all pupils in attendance on Thursday 8 November due to strike action from teaching staff in the SSTA and NASUWT. We want to minimise the disruption for our Senior Phase pupils, who have Prelim Examinations in January, so we will remain open to S4-S6 pupils. They will either be taught lessons by staff who are in attendance or they will have supervised self-study periods if their teacher is taking part in strike action.

All S1-3 pupils should remain at home due to the number of staff we will have in attendance. They can work through homework tasks that have been set for them on Microsoft Teams. If they are having trouble accessing Teams they should speak to their Guidance Teacher before next Thursday.

If the situation changes we will update you before Thursday 8 December.

Many Thanks,

Miss Jemma Playfair
Head Teacher
